

Pioneers

This issue of the Journal is dedicated to the following pioneers who have been constant source of inspiration.

- Concerned for man and his fate must always form the chief interest of all technical endeavours. Never forget this in the midst of your diagrams and equations.

- Albert Einstein

- When I was young, I observed that nine out of ten things I did were failures. So I did ten times more work.

- George Bernard Shaw

- Science is organized knowledge. Wisdom is organized life.

- Immanuel Kant (Philosopher)

- Character is like a tree reputation like a shadow. The shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing.

- Abraham Lincoln

- The only people with whom you should try to get even (have good relationship) are those who have helped you.

- Lincoln John E. Southard

- Delay is preferable to error.

- Thomas Jefferson

- The opposite of a correct statement is a false statement. The opposite of a profound truth may well be another profound truth.

- Niels Bohr

- Our mind is capable of passing beyond the dividing line we have drawn for it. Beyond the pairs of opposites of which the world consists, other, new insights begins.

- Herman Hesse

- A man's reputation is the opinion people have of him. His character is what he really is.

- Jack Miner
