

Blissful Thoughts

- Great convictions are the mothers of great deeds.
- Love is the gate of all the secrets of the universe.
- Spiritual knowledge is the only thing that can destroy our miseries forever.
- If you think yourselves weak, weak you will be; if you think yourselves strong, strong you will be.
- Service to the humanity is the highest form of worship.
- The goal of mankind is knowledge.
- Each soul is potentially divine.
- Man should be taught to be practical and physically strong. A dozen of such lions will conquer the world, and not millions of sheep can do.
- Anything that makes you weak physically, intellectually and spiritually: reject as poison.
- Men are more valuable than all the wealth of the world.
- The perfectly unselfish man is the most successful.
- The whole idea of human life can be put into that one word- the unselfishness.
- The best guide in life is strength.
- All that man has to do is to care of 3 things; good thought, good word and good deed.
- Blessed are they whose bodies get destroyed in the service of others.
- The greatest truths are the simplest things in the world, simple as your own existence.
- Look not back, no, not even if you see the dearest and nearest cry. Look not back, but forward.
- This world is a great gymnasium where we come to make ourselves strong.
- Real education is that which enables one to stand on his own legs.
- He who adjusts himself best lives the longest.

Source: Golden Words of Swami Vivekananda, Vivekananda Kendra, Kanyakumari, India