

Blissful Thoughts

- The human race is too ingenious for its own good. Our approach to nature is to beat it into submission. We would stand a better chance of survival if we accommodated ourselves to this planet and viewed it appreciatively instead of sceptically and dictatorially.

- E.B. White

- There must be more to life than having everything.

- Maurice Sendak

- Life is a tragedy for those who feel, and a comedy for those who think.

- La Bruyere

- Teach this triple truth to all: A generous heart, kind speech, and a life of service and compassion are the things which renew humanity.

- Buddha

- It is a beggar's pride that he is not a thief.

- Anonymous

- When one can see eternity in things that pass away and infinity in finite things, then one has true knowledge.

- Bhagvad Gita

- There is no reality except the one contained within us. That is why so many people live such an unreal life. They take the images out side themselves for reality and never allow the world within to assert itself.

- Hermann Hesse

- A small body of determined spirits fired by an unquenchable faith in their mission can alter the cause of history.

- Mahatama Gandhi

- The cure for all the illness of life is stored in the inner depth of life, the access of which becomes possible when we are alone... this peace is absurdly near, yet so distant.

- Rabindranath Tagore

- Hope says constantly, "Go on, Go on".
