

PIONEERS

This issue of the journal is dedicated to the following pioneers who have been constant source of inspiration.

I never teach my pupils. I only attempt to provide the conditions in which they can learn.

- Albert Einstein

Nothing in the world is as powerful as an idea whose time has come.

- Victor Hugo

There is no future in any job. The future lies in the man who holds the job.

- George Crane

One machine can do the work of fifty ordinary men. No machine can do the work of one extra-ordinary man.

- Elbert Hubbard

Sometimes we may learn more from a man's errors than from his virtues.

- Longfellow

In these hills, nature's hospitality eclipses all man can do. The enchanting beauty of the Himalayas, their bracing climate and soothing green that envelops you leaves nothing to be desired.

I wonder whether the scenery of these hills and climate are to be surpassed or equalled by any of the beauty spots of the world.

- Mahatma Gandhi during a two-week stay at Kausani (known as the wonder land of Kumaon Himalaya)
